

Synergy Tax & Accounting Inc

Privacy Policy

Tax professionals, like all providers of personal financial services, are now required by law to inform our clients of our policy regarding the privacy of client information. We have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are more stringent than those required by the law.

Types of Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is provided to us by you or obtained with your authorization.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees, and in limited circumstances, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

Protecting the Confidentiality and Security of Current and Former Clients' Information

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please do not hesitate to call if you have questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.
